DATED : 2nd September 2004

P.C.

Not on board.

2. On the praecipe taken out by the learned counsel for the appellants, we took up the matter.

3. The learned counsel for the appellants submits that the certified copy of the judgment was applied for on 12th July 2004, but it was made available on 31st August 2004 and, therefore, the amount deposited by the appellants should not be paid to the respondents at least for two weeks beyond the time mentioned in paragraph 7 of the judgment.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent vehemently opposed the application. He submits that the certified copy of the judgment dated 8th July 2004 was made available to the respondents on 20th July 2004 and, therefore, there was no laxity on the part of the office.

5. We are not persuaded to give any further direction beyond already stated in paragraph 7 of the judgment.

Order accordingly.
